WILDWOOD CREST—Commissioners in the Crest held a special meeting the afternoon of Wednesday, Nov. 13, past the Leader's deadline for print.

According to the meeting agenda, commissioners planned to vote on a resolution to go into a closed-door session, where they would discuss the long-term administrative strategic plan of the borough.

Commissioners held a similar closed-door session on Tuesday afternoon.

Business, discussion, or public comment about issues other than the administrative strategic plan was not permitted at the special meeting, under the provisions of the Open Public Meetings Act.
