Hi Ms. Stoehr,

All of the responsive documents which were in the possession of the Board were provided to you in response to your recent OPRA request. However, in assembling documents to respond to your request, we discovered that formal minutes had inadvertently not been prepared for some executive session discussions of the Board.

We are in the process of preparing those minutes and anticipate submitting them to the Board for approval at its meeting next week. As soon as those minutes have been prepared and approved, we will be happy to provide you with copies of them, in redacted form as appropriate with explanations of any redactions.

Thank you for your cooperation, and I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused. If you have any other questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you,

Michael Griggel
