Good afternoon,

Pursuant to your OPRA received via email on December 04, 2014, please note the following:

Our office had a power outage and the electrical circuit is not working. Due to the power failure, we are unable to use our copier/scanner/printer along with other equipment such as the postage machine, computers and terminals that are on that circuit as well.

We hope that the problem will be rectified by tomorrow. Would you please allow us an extension until end of business day Tuesday, December 16, 2014. Should the electrical problem not be resolved by that time, I will contact you via email and phone.

Thank you,
