CASE NUMBER:

CIVIL ACTION

COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

The plaintiff, Harold Jones, by way of Complaint against the defendants herein says:

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Harold Jones, is an adult individual residing at 520 Martinelli Avenue, Minotola, New Jersey.

2. Defendant J.J. Smith is a trooper with the New Jersey State Police who is sued in both his official and individual capacities.
3. Defendant State of New Jersey is a government unit employing Trooper J.J. Smith.
4. Defendant County of Salem is a local government unit in the State of New Jersey employing and operating the Salem County Correctional Facility.
5. Defendant Charles M. Miller is the Sheriff of Salem County. Individuals lawfully committed into Salem County Correctional Facility are in the custody of the Sheriff's Office.
6. Defendant Raymond C. Skradzinski is the Warden of Salem County Correctional Facility.
7. Defendant John Doe Supervisors are, after reasonable inquiry, as yet unknown adult individuals supervising Salem County Correctional Center Employees and/or Correctional Officers.
8. Defendant John Does Salem County Correctional Center Employees are, after reasonable inquiry, as yet unknown adult individuals tasked with intake of prisoners at the Correctional Center.
9. Defendant John Does Salem County Correctional Officers are, after reasonable inquiry, as yet unknown adult individuals employed by the County of Salem.

JURISDICTION

10. This is a claim for federal civil rights violations brought under 42 U.S.C. §1983, 42 U.S.C. § 12101, et seq, and pendent state law claims.
11. Jurisdiction in this court is proper as to plaintiff's federal claims under 28 U.S.C. §1331, as an action arising under the Constitution or laws of the United States, and under 28 U.S.C. §1343(a) (3), as an action to redress the deprivation, under color of state law, of rights secured by the Constitution of the United States. Jurisdiction over plaintiff's pendent state law claims is proper under 28 U.S.C. §1367.
12. Venue is properly laid in this district under 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) in the District of New Jersey, because all parties reside and the events establishing plaintiff's claims occurred.
13. Plaintiff seeks attorney's fees and costs under 42 U.S.C. §1988, 42 U.S.C. 12133, and Section 505 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 for his federal claims and N.J.S.A. 10:5-27.1, N.J.S.A. 10:6-2(e), and N.J.S.A. 34:19-5(e) for his state law claims.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

14. Plaintiff has longstanding medical issues which include diabetes and schizophrenia.
15. On June 27, 2013, plaintiff was in the midst of a medical episode when he drove his car until running out of gas.

16. Trooper Smith encountered plaintiff sitting in his vehicle on US Highway 40 East in the area of Milepost 18.6 in Woodstown, New Jersey.
17. Trooper Smith discovered a traffic warrant issued for plaintiff by Vineland City Municipal Court.
18. Trooper Smith called plaintiff's sister who informed him of plaintiff's conditions.
19. Despite knowing plaintiff's special needs, Trooper Smith arrested plaintiff and transported him to Salem County Correctional Facility.
20. Employees at Salem County Correctional Facility neglected plaintiff's medical needs. The plaintiff was admitted to the Correctional Facility, where Correctional Officers assaulted plaintiff because they misinterpreted his disability as resistance and contempt.
21. On June 29, 2013, after plaintiff was assaulted, he was released from the County Jail, and admitted to Salem Hospital.
22. At Salem Hospital, plaintiff was observed to have an altered mental status in association with elevated blood sugars up to 1000, fractured ribs, and injured toes.
