Dear Mr. Tirrell:

Please allow this letter to serve as notice that, with the consent of the Board President, effective today, October 7, 2015, you have been placed on immediate suspension with pay, pending investigation and a full administrative review of an allegation that you engaged in unauthorized access of the district computer system. Based upon the results of the review and investigation of the incident and your alleged conduct, discipline, up to and including, possible tenure charges, may also subsequently be imposed against you.

In the meantime, during the course of this suspension, you are not permitted on or within Board property. If you have any personal property in any Board building that you need during the course of this suspension, please contact my office and we will arrange to have same sent to you.

Sincerely,

Zenaida Cobian, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools
